

Congressman Shocked by Prison Horror

By DON WHITEHEAD
Buchenwald, Germany, April 24—Men arrested today after inspecting the horrors of Buchenwald prison said that Nazi atrocities committed there exceeded the wildest flights of imagination.
This is the most horrible thing that has happened to me," said Rep. Carter Maysoco (D-Ala.). After he and his committee had been shown around the camp where emaciated bodies of men and prisoners said human bodies—in cluding some that still had their flesh on them—had been hung on spikes like stakes or buried in the ground, men were hung on spikes like cordwood, where men were hung on spikes like stakes or buried in the ground.

"This is barbarism at its worst."

Rep. John G. Connelly (D-Calif.) deplored everything that had been done and written about Nazi horror.

The congressmen, who were in Buchenwald on inspection missions, invited to come here by Gen. Eisenhower so that they might see the atrocities committed in Buchenwald and elsewhere, were shocked by what they saw and heard.

Rep. John T. Bennett (R-Mo.)

and Marion E. Walter (D-Tex.) said that the world's people

Hold Everything

What About the 43rd? Here It Is

BY RUSSELL BRINES
With Forty-Third Division, East of Berlin, Germany, April 24—The 43rd Infantry Division has met you with a question:

"What about the 43rd?"

It isn't particular to this outfit.

It's a question that comes into the same query from men in numerous other little publicized jobs of making brilliant victories complete.

But maybe what some of the boys in the forty-third say will give you an idea:

Pfc. Walter Toozzi, New Haven, Conn., says: "What about the 43rd?"

He and his company had just come out of the woods where blackened skulls still could be seen on the ground.

But the furnaces the congressmen saw a great heap of wasted human bodies, which the Nazis had piled high in the other like so many logs. Nearby was a truck piled high with tattooed prison numbers.

In the adjacent courtyard was a pile of human bones, bits of bone remains of the dead who had been burned to ashes.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

But the furnaces the con-

gressmen saw a room from

which the prison had been

cleared, where blackened skulls still

could be seen.

